What is LaMPS?

Leaders and Managers of Physiotherapy Services is a Professional Network of the Chartered Society of Physiotherapy. It promotes high standards of physiotherapy in health and social care by supporting leadership and fostering good management practice.

It continues to strive to provide a robust association for those with management roles and responsibility acting as a key link between clinical managers, the CSP and other key organisations.

How does LaMPS work?

LaMPS has an executive committee which includes a President, Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, Treasurer, Public Relations Officer and regional representatives from across the UK.

Core Aims

LaMPS aims reflect the changing way we work.

- Supporting new managers
- Influencing the CSP and other key organisations
- Providing peer support and mentorship to new and current members
- Develop learning and education opportunities

We recognise as health and social care is a devolved responsibility across the UK our members can face different opportunities and challenges. We seek to ensure all members views are heard from

Who Can Join?

LaMPS welcomes anyone with involvement or interest in leadership or management in health and social care. This may be new to management Physiotherapists, private practitioners, people in social enterprises or those in independent hospitals. We are also pleased to welcome increasing numbers of non physiotherapists who are managing physiotherapy services

Membership

Joining LaMPS is easy and costs £30 (with a £5 initial joining fee). Look on the website lamps.csp.org.uk or contact the acting membership secretary Susan Finlay: susan.finley45@yahoo.co.uk
